Mandatory Safety Requirements

Drones are remotely piloted aircraft [RPA] under New Zealand legislation and their operation and safety is regulated by the Civil Aviation Authority [CAA]. Drones need to adhere to the relevant safety standards and manufacturer requirements. Using drone technology has implications for privacy. If an organisation covered by the Privacy Act intends to use drone technology, it should do so in accordance with this Act. This would include giving notice to affected individuals regarding collection of their personal information, keeping it secure, and only using and disclosing the personal information as permitted under the Privacy Act. If use of a drone is authorised, the Operator must supply Te Pae Christchurch with a satisfactory operational plan prior to the event. This plan must demonstrate a professional requirement for the operation of the drone and a commitment to operate within the standard operating conditions set by CAA and the relevant safety standards and manufacturer requirements are met.

It is the responsibility of all persons conducting a business or undertaking (PCBUs) and their staff to ensure that the Health and Safety at Work Act 2015, applicable legislation, procedures and safe work practices are followed, as far as reasonably practicable, the health and safety of all persons that may be affected by the activity.

Please tick the boxes to confirm these requirements will be met:

When operating a drone outside Te Pae, Christchurch:

- CAA's rules for unmanned aircraft as stated in Part 101 rules will be adhered to.
- Where CAA Part 101 rules cannot be followed, Part 102 Certification will be required. Details and a copy of the responsible person's Certificate as per legislative requirements and any training in accordance with the relevant safety standards and manufacturer requirements must be available if requested.
- The drone is airworthy and meets relevant design and performance standards. It is maintained and operated in accordance with the manufacturer's manual or instruction and within any limitations.
- The drone is thoroughly checked for faults and defects before flight.
- The drone will at no time be operated over crowds of people unless consent has been given by any persons the aircraft will fly over.
- The Operator will not operate the drone if impaired by alcohol.
